

SOUTH SHORE EDUCATIONAL COLLABORATIVE

Executive Director

The South Shore Educational Collaborative is accepting applications for the position of Executive Director. The SSEC is comprised of 10 school districts with an operating budget of over $16 million dollars, on the South Shore area of metropolitan Boston. The SSEC provides a wide range of special education services for 360 students in seven programs. Other activities include mental health services, professional development, adult programs and residential services.

Qualifications

Applicants must be licensed as principal, supervisor, administrator of special education; and/or a superintendent. Masters' degree required and/or an advanced degree preferred. Experience in teaching and administrative leadership in special education at the building and/or district wide level. Knowledge and experience of an educational collaborative setting preferred.

Salary range of $125,000 - $150,000, plus benefits. Salary commensurate with experience.

Position available July 1, 2009

To be considered for this position, please submit an application packet consisting of a cover letter, a resume, three current letters of recommendation, transcripts and evidence of professional licensure.

Application packets being accepted until February 17, 2009, or until position filled.

Please mail to:

Search Committee
South Shore Educational Collaborative
90 Industrial Park Road
Hingham, MA 02043

EOE